

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 936
By Rinks

A RESOLUTION to honor Matt Little for his outstanding service to the General Assembly as Press Secretary for the House Democratic Caucus.

WHEREAS, it is fitting for the members of this Body to recognize those exemplary professionals who throughout their tenure as employees of the legislative branch of Tennessee government have rendered their invaluable services with both proficiency and acumen during the annual sessions of the Tennessee General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, Matt Little is one such stalwart legislative employee who is richly deserving of the commendation and respect of the representatives whom he has so faithfully served; and

WHEREAS, in this essential post, Matt has demonstrated the true magnitude and worth of his clear and concise journalistic skills and has proven himself to be a reliable purveyor of information concerning the General Assembly and its proceedings; and

WHEREAS, life in the spotlight has indeed proved beneficial for Matt, as he has become renowned among members of the General Assembly and his colleagues alike for his well-drafted and informative commentaries on the various legislative proposals pending on Capitol Hill; and

WHEREAS, Matt has been of invaluable assistance to, and a trusted friend and confidante of, Democratic Caucus Chairman Randy Rinks and the other members of the House Democratic Caucus of the One Hundredth General Assembly; these representatives being:
